Sacrament Information

Infant Baptism: A preparation program for parents and godparents is required. Once paperwork is submitted, we will register you for preparation and schedule the date for Baptism.

First Reconciliation & First Eucharist: Customarily the reception of these sacraments takes place during 2nd grade. The child will need to have completed one year of religious education the year immediately prior to sacramental preparation and will continue in religious education concurrent with the preparation classes.

Confirmation: Candidates must be 16 years of age to be confirmed. The candidate will need to have completed one year of youth group the year immediately prior to Confirmation preparation. They will also need to attend youth group the year of preparation. Preparation for adult Confirmation takes place in November and the celebration is prior to Lent.

Marriage: Please call the Parish Office at least six months in advance to begin the preparation process. You will set the date for the wedding at the first meeting.

Anointing of the Sick: Please contact the parish office to arrange visitation and sacraments. You may leave a message any time of day or night and someone will get back to you as soon as possible.

Please contact your parish office for more information.

Dear Parishioners,

Here we will continue my quest to rank every U2 album from worst to first. In case you've missed it, the order so far has been Pop, Zooropa, No Line on the Horizon, Songs of Innocence, October, All that You Can't Leave Behind, and War. Today we're going to get through a few more.

6 - Boy – This is U2's first album, released in 1980 (before I was even born!). If you listen to it after you listen to a more recent album they really sound a lot younger. It has sold more copies as people like me got into their newer stuff and then there are many classics such as, I Will Follow, and Out of Control and Electric Co. I really enjoy this album a lot but don't have a lot to say about it.

Must hear: I Will Follow

5 – Rattle and Hum – I'm not going to comment too much on this one because it doesn't have many original songs. I actually wasn't going to include it at all but figured I'd just tell people where I think it belongs. Listen to All I Want Is You.

4 - The Unforgettable Fire – This album wasn't well received by many people and it does have a very unique feel to it. Some describe it as "Atmospheric," which I guess is appropriate. It's definitely a bit darker and mellower than other albums, with the big difference probably being the classic tribute to Martin Luther King Jr titled, Pride (In the Name of Love). Still, I like this album and it actually is probably an album that conforms to my current tastes. 4th of July, for example, is a darkish instrumental ballad.

This seems like an appropriate time to point out that despite being Irish, Bono and the rest of the band seem to have a preoccupation with the United States of America. As mentioned above, they have a song about Martin Luther King Jr. as well as a song named after our independence day. There is a second song on the same CD called MLK, also for King, and one called Elvis Presley and America. I've always found that interesting.

Must hear: Bad. This is actually one of my favorite U2 songs of all time. It's definitely dark (it's about heroin addiction) but it's brilliant, and an absolute pleasure to hear live. You can find a great version on youtube. Search, "U2 Bad Boston Live."

3 – How to Dismantle an Atomic Bomb – While a lot of people will disagree I think this is one of the most underrated albums U2 has produced. Even the band would disagree with this rating. They themselves said that the album had some good songs, but the album was not as good as the sum of its parts. I disagree. I love this album.

Part of the reason I like it so much, though, is because it came out at a very exciting time in my life and it has a great amount of sentimental value. I'd just graduated college and was spending a year in the Seattle area working in a parish, patiently biding my time before I went into seminary. The Vertigo Tour which followed the album's release was wonderful. My brother and I went up to Vancouver together, and I attended two other shows in Seattle. For these reasons, I'm very attached to this album.

Speaking the Vertigo Tour it is my favorite tour I've been to. I got lost in the show. If you have a chance to watch Live in Chicago, you should do it. It gets really intense from Miracle Drug and on. My favorite part (aside from the very end when they played 40, which I wrote about last week) was when they played Running to Stand Still, when Bono gave a shout out to the troops overseas and... just watch. It was nice.

Must hear track: Miracle Drug.

Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

First Reading — You humble of the land, seek justice and humility, and the Lord will be your protection (Zephaniah 2:3; 3:12-13).

Psalm — Blessed are the poor in spirit; the kingdom of heaven is theirs! (Psalm 146).

Second Reading — God chose the weak of the world, those who count for nothing, so that whoever boasts should boast in the Lord (1 Corinthians 1:26-31).

Gospel — Jesus taught from the mountain: Blessed are the poor in spirit (Matthew 5:1-12a).

Position open until filled.

Cuarto Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario — Ciclo A
Mateo 5, 1-12: "Dichosos los pobres en el Espíritu."

Las Bienaventuranzas constituyen la gran síntesis del anuncio y del mensaje de Jesús. Son gracia y compromiso, la buena noticia para los pobres y programa de vida para los humildes y limpios de corazón. Las Bienaventuranzas celebran el amor de Dios que elige a los pobres para realizar su designio de salvación y de vida. Son la síntesis programática de Jesús que busca crear un mundo de personas abiertas y disponibles, libres y generosas. En la vida se nos ofrecen muchos caminos para conseguir la tan deseada felicidad, pero es cierto que no todos los senderos conducen a la misma. Hay veredas equivocadas que en lugar de acercarnos a la bienaventuranza nos acerca a la malaventuranza. Con las bienaventuranzas Jesús quiere llevarnos a tener una mente y un corazón despejado y feliz. Es justo lo contrario a las ofertas de felicidad que nos ofrece el mundo. En lugar de ofrecernos cosas y elementos exteriores lo que nos propone es el crecimiento interior, llenar nuestra vida de unos valores que no fallan en el camino de la felicidad. Jesús contrapone la felicidad entendida según el mundo: los que son ricos en múltiples cosas: dinero, cultura, poder, placeres... y nos da una noción totalmente distinta. Ser feliz no es tener sino ser. Las bienaventuranzas son una guía en el camino cotidiano. Nos describe cómo debe vivir un creyente para ser una persona feliz. Meditemos brevemente cada una de ellas que bien nos puede servir como examen de vida y de conciencia: *"Felices los que reconocen su pobreza espiritual, porque el reino de Dios les pertenece." Pobre de espíritu es aquel que tiene un corazón pobre y que se siente pequeño, mendigo, insuficiente y que depende siempre de Dios. *"Felices los que están tristes porque Dios los consolará." Las personas que están afligidas por sus pecados, ésta es la aflicción que produce el arrepentimiento en la vida de los seres humanos. Dios consolará a los arrepentidos. *"Felices los de corazón humilde, porque recibirán la tierra que Dios le ha prometido." Son humildes de corazón los que se someten de verdad a la voluntad de Dios. *"Felices los que anhelan hacer lo ordenado por Dios, porque Él hará que se cumpla su deseo." Es tener interés en Cristo, en su gracia, en sus promesas, en su santidad. Hambre y sed de justicia de las cosas espirituales. Sus deseos quedarán satisfechos. *"Felices los compasivos, porque Dios tendrá compasión de ellos." La misericordia es una llamada constante en la vida de cristiano. Compadecerse del otro es sentir con el otro. *"Felices los de corazón limpio, porque verán a Dios." Esta es la bienaventuranza que más abarca. Es el deseo constante de estar en Dios y con Dios. *"Felices los que procuran la paz entre los hombres, porque Dios los llamará hijos suyos." Sembrar la paz interior y exterior para lograr la auténtica armonía espiritual. *"Felices los que sufren persecución por hacer lo ordenado por Dios, porque el reino de Dios les pertenece." Seguir la voluntad de Dios no es fácil en un mundo que intenta apartarlo de su realidad diaria. Este desencuentro que provocan muchas personas produce persecuciones y tensiones. *"Felices ustedes, cuando la gente les insulte y les maltrate, y cuando por causa mía digan contra ustedes toda clase de mentiras." Incluso en los momentos más difíciles y duros de la vida el seguidor de Jesús siempre lo sentirá cercano. Buen proyecto de vida para un mundo que cada vez tiene menos proyectos para hacer a las personas más felices. La salvación que Cristo nos trae nos dará la fuerza y las claves para seguir viviendo las bienaventuranzas.

PRESENTACION DE JESUS AL TEMPLO

El día 2 de febrero de cada año, se recuerda la presentación del Niño Jesús al templo. También ese día, se recuerdan las palabras de Simeón, llevando candelas a bendecir, las cuales simbolizan a Jesús como luz de todos los hombres. De aquí viene el nombre de la "Fiesta de las candelas" o el "Día de la Candelaria". Te invitamos a celebrar esta fiesta el Sábado 4 de Febrero a las 6:00 p.m (trae a tus niños para recibir una bendición, veladoras para bendecir; y un postre para compartir). Esperamos tu presencia.
